Recently, we decided to sell our condo – our home for fifteen years. We were nervous, apprehensive and had many questions.

We were introduced to Edward “Eddie” Brinkman. Eddie put us at ease and answered our questions. After completing some preparations for showing suggested by Eddie, we listed the condo. We were in escrow a few days later getting a better price than we had anticipated.

We highly recommend Eddie – he is full of energy and enthusiasm to get the job done. He is surrounded by a great team – including a very capable handyman, office support to find a new place to live and a recommendation for a reasonable and responsible moving company.

Thanks, Eddie!!
